

Luis F Alamo, ARM

Account Executive

Luis's position at Alamo Insurance Group plays a pivotal role in empowering our clients to maximize the benefits of our technology platform, offering them access to a wealth of content, tools, and capabilities. His distinct blend of robust analytical prowess and exceptional interpersonal skills ensures that clients receive unparalleled support and guidance. Widely admired for his infectious energy, Luis brings a refreshing positivity, youthful vigor, and adaptability to every interaction, leaving a lasting impression on all those he encounters.

Biography: Emerging from the vibrant banks of the Hudson River in Hudson County New Jersey, Luis F's narrative epitomizes unwavering ambition and extraordinary accomplishments. At the remarkable age of 18, Luis obtained his insurance producer license, marking the inception of a remarkable journey that would see him flourish in diverse arenas. Venturing into the prestigious realm of Versace, where luxury and sophistication reign supreme, Luis honed his craft in customer service and sales over a transformative four-year tenure, emerging as a seasoned professional primed to revolutionize the insurance industry.

Now assuming the distinguished role of account executive, Luis stands as a paragon of excellence in Risk Management activities, providing invaluable support to Alamo's esteemed senior executive leadership team. In addition to his Bachelor of Science degree in Environmental and Business Economics from Rutgers University, New Brunswick, Luis holds the esteemed Accredited Risk Manager (ARM) designation, a testament to his unwavering commitment to professional excellence and expertise in navigating complex risk landscapes. Luis brings forth not only his intellectual acumen but also a profound understanding of the inner-city urban landscape, enriching his perspective and contributions to the diverse communities he serves.