

Sawyer Warzybuk

Analyst & Account Consultant

As an Analyst and Account Consultant, Sawyer works closely with our Senior Vice President of Benefits, Raquel Cagley in the Employee Benefits Division.

Her uniquely attractive combination of strong analytic and interpersonal skills ensures that clients benefit not only from insightful data analysis but also from a personable and engaging approach. Beyond her professional acumen, clients are sure to agree that Sawyer's positive, youthful, and adaptable energy is infectious, creating a vibrant and collaborative atmosphere within our team.

Biography: Born and raised in New Jersey, Sawyer grew up in a small town within the countryside of the state. One of her favorite quotes is:

“What you think, you become. What you feel, you attract.
What you imagine, you create.” - Buddha

This principle reminds her to always stay positive; she emphasizes that kindness and optimism are crucial to connecting with clients and to building lasting relationships.

Sawyer brings a wealth of diverse experience to the insurance industry, with a background that spans impactful roles in education at the Flemington-Raritan School District and analytics within the computer security sector. Demonstrating quick thinking and adaptability, she made significant contributions in navigating various teaching environments across different age groups and learning abilities.

In her prior role as a data analyst in the computer security industry, Sawyer honed a crucial skill set—analyzing and interpreting complex data compilations. Her ability to translate these findings into clear and accessible formats, such as spreadsheets and presentations, showcases her proficiency in distilling intricate information for effective communication.

Sawyer graduated from Rider University in 2017 with a Bachelor's Degree in Mathematics and a minor in Business Administration and Finance.
